I AM WOMAN

The Year Book Staff
proudly presents

ATHENA 1974

The successes of tomorrow are determined . . .

PRINCIPAL—MRS. ROSALIE C. RISINGER

To the graduates:

"How do I love thee, let me count the ways." Mine is a special kind of love: pride, joy of accomplishment, and gratitude for the many fine things you have done for me and our school.

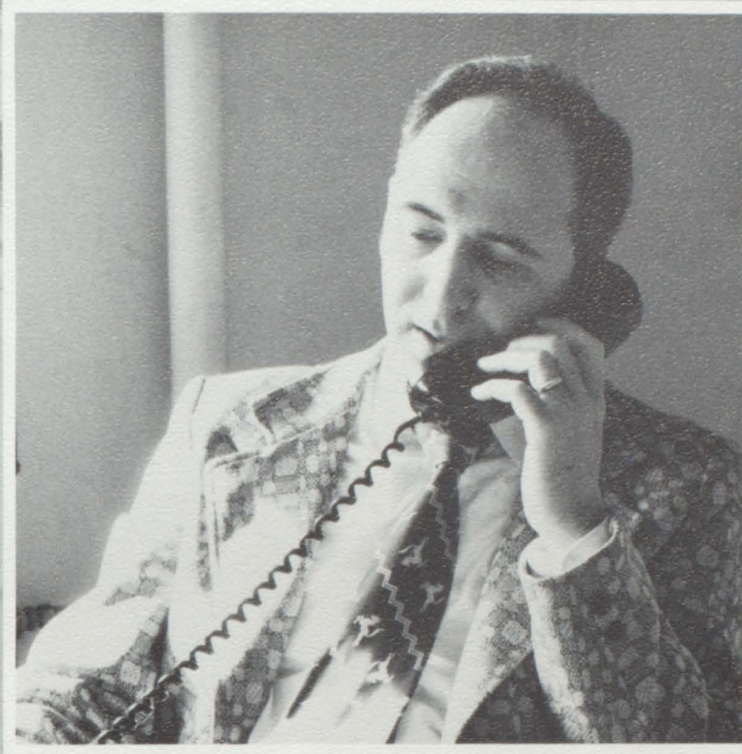

As you enter this new chapter of your life, I hope that the experiences you have had at Essex High will be meaningful ones.

Enjoy each day to the fullest: with courage, patience, and concern for all others.

Congratulations and sincere best wishes to each of you.

Rosalie C. Risinger

by the decisions of today.

VICE PRINCIPAL—MR. THOMAS J. BIGLIN

Dear Class of 1973

STOP! SLOW! YIELD!

Familiar roadside signs? We look at them all of our lives and obey (usually) without question. But how about similar signs on life's roadway? First we have to learn to recognize the signs and then obey—for our own good.

STOP! gossiping and spreading rumors . . .

YIELD! to the needs of others all around . . .

SLOW! and enjoy life for what it is—not what some magazine, movie or commercial on TV paints it to be . . .

Life is a "rat race" for those who want to get caught up in it and ignore signs.

Life is a great experience, every day, for anyone who follows the rules of the road.

Thomas J. Biglin

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

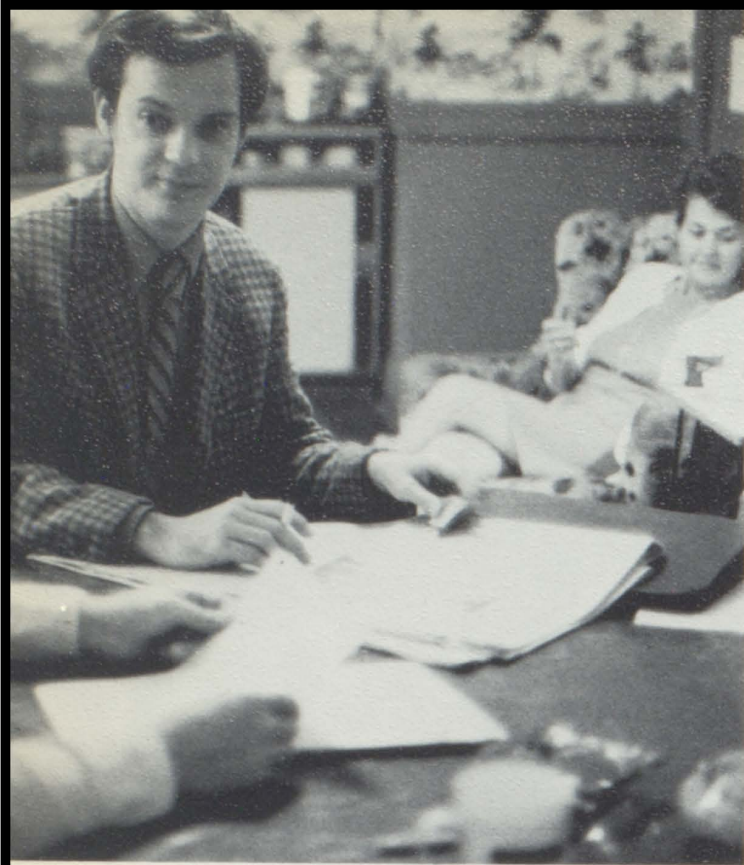

CLASS OF '74

Maria Gonnella leaves Debbie Terrazzino a portrait of Billy Dee Williams.
Diane Nugent leaves her attendance record to Evelyn Soto.
Gladys Robinson leaves comptometers that don't get jammed to Michelle Godfrey.
The Commercial Art girls leave the Art Juniors Mrs. Kelley; now they have their hands full.
B.C. leaves large enough lockers so you can hide during fire drills and enough muzzles for the faculty.
T.S. leaves school clocks that are 10 minutes slow in the morning and 10 minutes fast at 3:15.
Shean Henderson leaves her height to Jan McFadden.
Judi Dixon leaves the Juniors a bowl of cherries and cream.
B.M. 12¹ leaves some X-RATED films for Family Living.
B.M. 12² leaves a T.V. that works in the cafeteria.
Pat Lewis leaves her training bras to Vanessa Torrence.
Rosemarie Greer leaves roller skates to come down 3rd Avenue hill from the bus stop to Juniors that ride the 6 Crosstown Bus.
B.M. 12¹ leaves Daisy Perez a years supply of Home Liquor.
To Felicia and Pam, the food girls leaves the scrambled Card-X file to play with.
Anna Iglio leaves her 18 hour girdle to Denise Reed.
B.M. 12¹ leaves ten cases of "CHARMIN" to replace the sand paper.
Inge Prinz leaves her double jointed fingers to Olga Korbett.
Ernestine Flagg leaves her shape to Ovias Allen.
Gina Tortorella leaves Janet Cobbs all of Randee's love.
B.M. 12¹ girls are happy to leave the "Creeping Crawlers" in the LADDIE BOY burgers.
Mariann Oberlies leaves her Green Gremlin to Barbara Striesand.
B.M. 12² leaves a new cook book for the cafeteria staff to use.
Diane Melillo leaves her shoes and sore feet to anyone who will take them.
Dorothy Dungee leaves her twice a day headaches to Yvonne Campbell.
T.S. leaves a 3 day week to conserve energy and a new water fountain with enough pressure to wet your mouth.
Dianna Dill leaves her sewing ability to Robin Giese.
To Mr. Theos, the food girls give back his sanity and hope he can keep it next year.
B.M. 12² leaves a high school student lounge.
Paula leaves a Shirley Temple dance act to Vicki Maselli.
Debby Trella leaves her love to Maria Insalaco.
B.M. 12¹ leaves a chimney in the locker rooms for the "secret smokers."
Robin Branch leaves her Class Clown crown to Pat Jones.
The Food Service girls leave Sharon, Carolyn, and Debra—Mrs. Skidmore's Potty Pass.
Betty Jean Jenkins leaves her big mouth to Lisa Coleman.
B.M. 12² girls leave their love to "MA" Ehehalt.
Laurann Marchese leaves Gina Tortorella all the Men over age 25.
B.M. 12¹ girls leave plenty of PAMPERS for Mrs. Siska's first grandchild—and a bottle of EXCEDRIN for all the headaches she will have.
Robin Branch isn't leaving her laugh to anyone—she's taking it with her.

Christmas

SNOW, YOU MUST BE WOMAN

Snow, you must be woman . . .
no man would lavish ermine
so indiscriminately, every branch and twig costumed for this winter snow.

Last night you covered hills and trees, the used-car lots, impartially as well-loved children . . .
under virgin blankets
everything is beautiful.

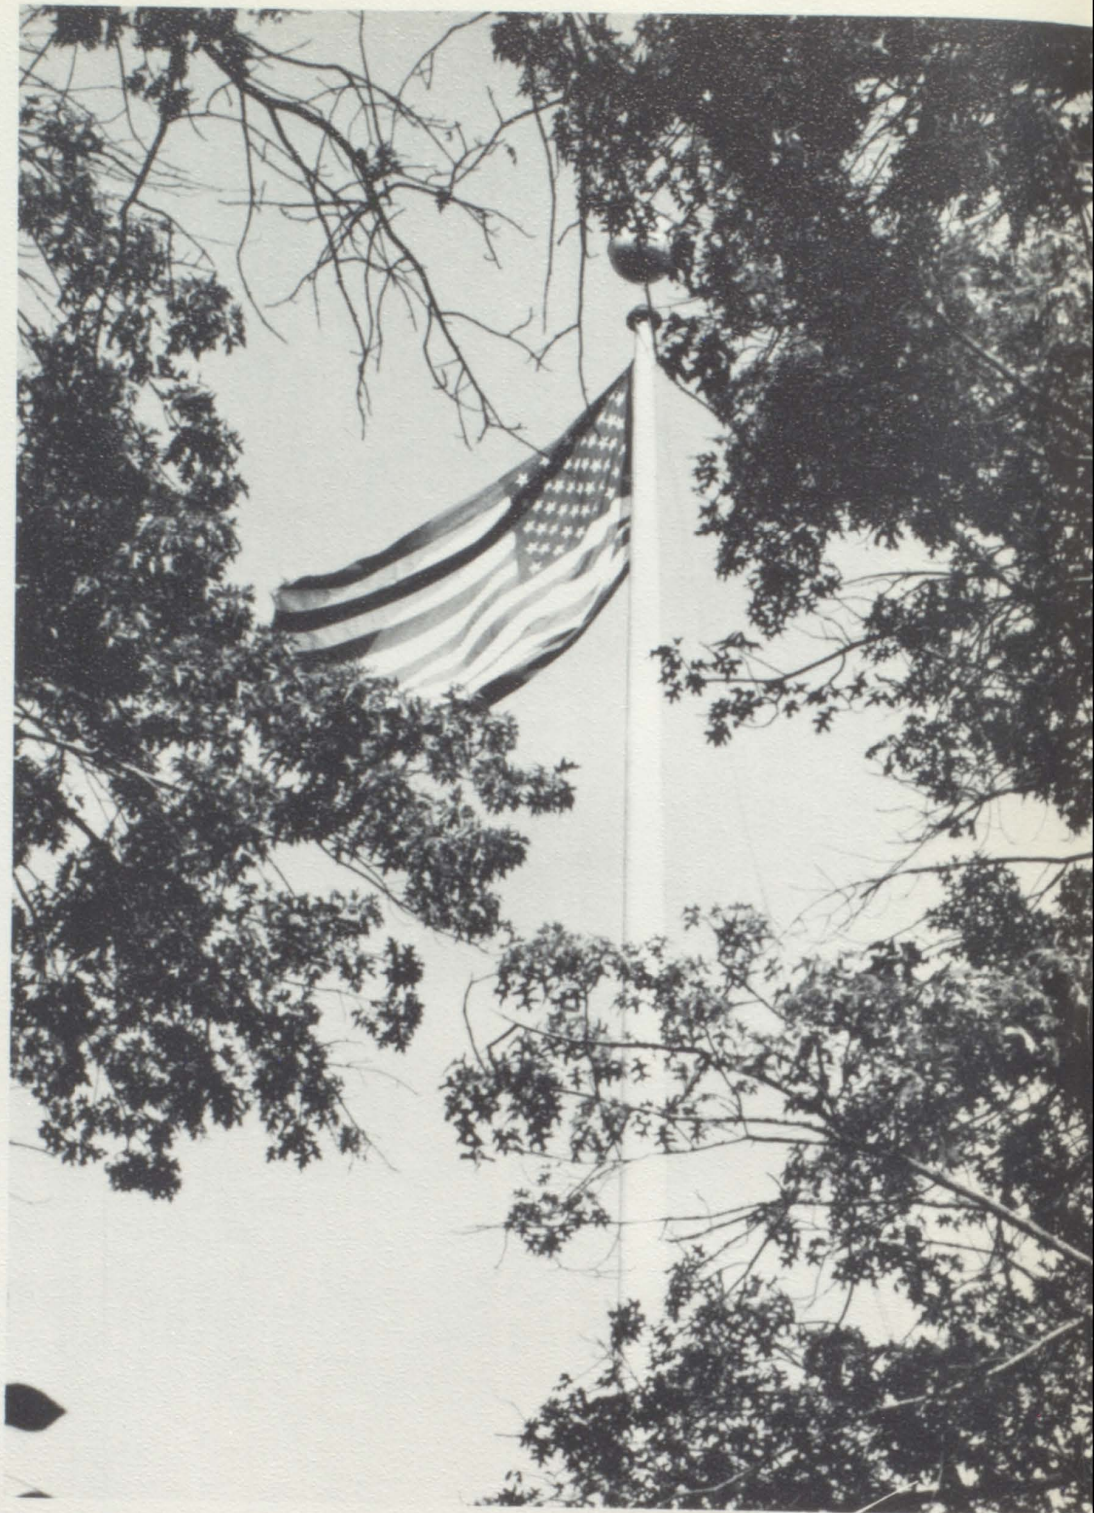

Now early-morning sun
reflects a million starry flakes,
for you, forever feminine,
wear diamonds, with your furs
at breakfast time.

"This is the end, beautiful friend, the end.

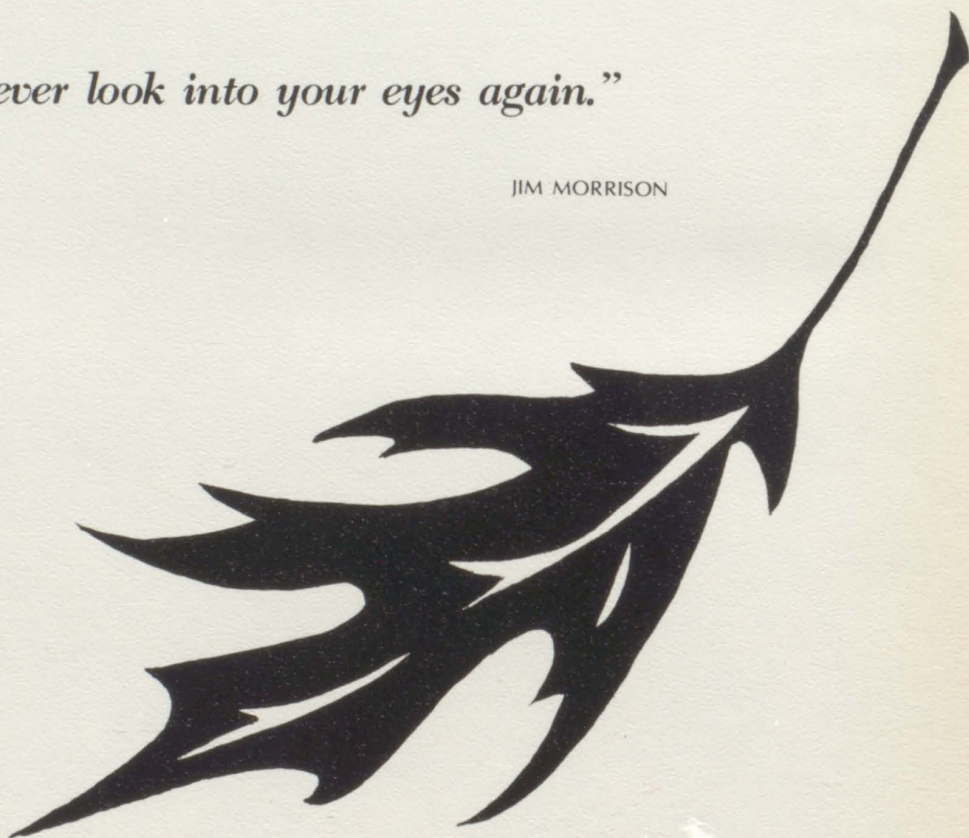

Of our elaborate plans, the end.

Of everything that stands, the end.

No safety or surprise, the end.

I'll never look into your eyes again."
